

Intro

Welcome to the list, a reflection of my drinking journey through the realms of wine, beer, and cocktails. The list is not only a compilation of labels but each bottle tells a story, echoes moments of laughter, and reminds me of people I enjoy with. You will find a range of selections that welcome both new and high-flying hour drinkers. I believe that there is always one bottle that stands out and makes it easy for you to choose depending on the occasion. From the rolling vineyard of Bordeaux to the traditional breweries of Belgium, and the vibrant mixology of Thai spirits. My selection reflects not only my personal taste but also the collective spirit and enjoyment that transcends boundaries and brings people together. Each drink has been carefully chosen not only for its flavor profile but also for its ability to elevate your drinking experience.

So, embark on this journey and let each glass be a toast to experience, memory and forever friendship.

Ps. Use these indicators to guide you to the philosophy of each producers.

🟡 Low Intervention 🍇

Refers to wines made with minimal interference in the winemaking process. This approach emphasizes natural fermentation, minimal or no filtration, and little to no additives, resulting in wines that express the true character of the grapes and their terroir.

🟢 Organic 🌿

Made from grapes grown without synthetic pesticides, herbicides, or fertilizers. These wines normally look and taste classic.

🟤 Biodynamic 🌙

Extend beyond organic methods, and aims to find harmony between soil, plant, animals and human. Following a biodynamic calendar, it emphasizes natural yeast and minimal sulfur in winemaking.

🟠 Sustainable 🌍

Focuses on environmental stewardship, social responsibility, and economic viability. As grapes are grown, harvested, and made into wine, a multitude of environmental factors are prioritized.

Cheers 🍷,
Sivakorn

ALICE AND HER VINES

Domaine de l'Octavin

Alice Bouvot

Jura, France

A woman with great character and passion, her wine express her personality in a much louder way. Alice now farm around 5 hectares of great plot around Arbois, including La Mailloche, Les Nouvellssm En Curon and Les Corvées and following biodynamic practice. Apart from these vineyard, Alice also produces wine from her trusted friend's properties where fruits are always picked by hand. There is no recipe for her wines. Every decision is decide once the grape is picked and improvise by her special understanding of fermentation and with her philosophy for adding nothing at any stage. Her wines are different, dynamic, vibrant and FUN. The wine produce from other properties are recognizable by her iconic gnome label.

JAUMA

James Erskine

Adelaide Hills, Australia

THE AUSSIE NATURAL WINE GANG

After leaving his career as a successful sommelier, James was part of an Aussie gang called Natural Selection Theory, formed in 2010 with Anton van Klopper (Lucy Margaux) and Tom Shobbrook (Shobbrook) dedicate to natural wine movement in Australia. With degree in Agricultural Science specialized in Soil Chemistry, Jauma farm is now a certified organic property growing cherries, grapevines, apples, pears and vegetables. As a natural winemaker, Jauma produces wines from grapes, nothing more. This creates pure and living wines, uninhibited in their portrayal of fruit, terroir and character. Jauma Wine is famous around the world for it's stability, brightness, integrity, purity, fun and fullness of flavor. All Jauma wine are under crown seal to minimize uptake of the oxygen and keep the wine alive.

MEET NABOSO

Bratislava, Slovakia

After working in an amazing wine bar in Copenhagen, Nadja fell in love with Andrej, experienced winemaker whose desire to improve is endless. Thus, NABOSO began. Their philosophy is simple: “We make natural wine, but in the end, we want to make good wine. The wine has to be stable, without faults, drinkable, enjoyable, and most importantly, we have to like it—otherwise, it will not leave our cellar.” All the work is done by the two of them, with love and a smile. Treating the vineyard with the utmost care results in outstanding wine.
